

To establish a platform for actuaries in the greater Toronto area to share thoughts and ideas on business and financial issues related to the Asian Pacific region.

Our primary objective is to facilitate the development of business and social acquaintances amongst actuaries who share a common interest in activities in the Asian Pacific areas.